A Note From Your Teacher...

We have had a great week! Science has been exciting - learning how matter can change physically. We learned about this by popping popcorn!

Book reports are due on Tuesday, January 31, 2017. You child should be close to finishing the book of their choice. This will give them enough time to write their report. Please refer to the outline as some things have changed for this book report.

Math – We will continue learning about dividing with decimals. Our test is scheduled for Tuesday, 1/31/17.

Social Studies – We will learn about climographs, the rise of new industries, and how people changed during Reconstruction. A test is scheduled for Tuesday, 1/31/17.

English – Students will learn about object pronouns, changing tenses, and principal parts of verbs. A test is scheduled for Monday, 1/29/17.

Science – We will learn about viscosity of liquids and conduct and experiment. Our test will be on Friday.

Reading – We will read Exploding Ants this week. Our theme is how animals adapt in order to survive.

Spelling – Homophones
