A Note From Your Teacher...

We have many things happening! Students are working on their Science Projects about an element. Students are reminded to continue to read Will at the Battle of Gettysburg, 1863 by Laurie Calkhoven. Book reports and dioramas are due on Tuesday, October 31.

Remember...

We met our goal for collecting snacks for the Hospice House. Our pizza party will be on Friday, October 13, 2017. This will also be a Uniform Holiday for everyone!

Reading – We will be reading Ch'i-lin Purse this week. The theme will be what the rewards are in helping others.

English – We will have our test on Wednesday. Then, we will learn about writing three paragraph expository essays.

Math – We will finish Topic 3 and have our test on Wednesday. We will start topic four in math. This is about multiplying decimals by whole numbers.

Science – We will learn about the structure of an atom, valence electrons, compounds, organic/inorganic compounds, and chemical bonding. Science Projects are due on Friday and we will be presenting them to the class.

Social Studies – We will finish our detective work about the US Constitution. Students will learn the Preamble.

Spelling – vowel sounds with r

Religion - Students will learn about the celebration of confirmation.
